FOREST FIRE AT RIVERSDALE. Historic Houses Endangered, But Only a Stable Destroyed-The Conflagration Under Control. A fire has been burning for a couple of days in the woods and fields around Riversdale, on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Prince George county, Md., about seven miles from this city and half a mile east of Hyattaville. The high wind prevailing rendered the fire dangerous to bouses to the windward. At 2 o'clock yesbouses to the windward. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning the fire reached the Lord Baltimore estate, now owned by the Calvetts. Both the house, stable, and school house on the estate are old and dilapidated, none of them having been occupied for a long time. The old mansion, once famous as the summer resort of Clay and Webster, was in danger of being consumed, but it was spared, while the old stable was burned. This stable, together with the mansion and school house were insured on Tuesday, the day before the might of the fire. The residences of George W. Evans and Henry Plummer were endangered but escaped the fire, which is now well under control. There was no danger to Hyattaville and will not be if the flames should kindle sgain, as a meadow extending a quarter of a mile lies between them.

Quick Time to Annapolis via Baltimore and Potomac Railroad.

Under the schedule now in effect on the Baltimore and Potomac and Annapolis and Bik Ridge railroads, time between Washington and Annapolis has been very considerably shortened. The new trail, which is additional to the former service, leaves Washington at 9:50 a. m. every week day, and arrives in Anapolis at 10:90. The time of departure of this train makes it specially destrable to those who have business in the Maryland capitol, while the shortness of the run places them in Anapolis before the business of the day begins. Returning, the new train leaves Annapolis at 3:56 p. m., arriving in Washington at 5:56 p. o., arriving in Washington, Baltimore and Potomac station, 7:15 a. m., 12:95 noon, 4:27 p. m. week days; 9:50 a. m., 4:20 p. m. on Sundays. Returning, leave Annapolis 6:40 a. m. and 12:55 noon, week days, and 4:20 p. m. on Sundays. Ouick Time to Annapolis via Baltimore

Hayward Hand Grenade,

The best Hand Grenade Fire Extinguisher ever produced. Reliable, simple, economical; will not freeze or burst. Extinguishes fire instantly. Easily broken, can be used by any one. The liquid contained in it is absolutely harm-less to flesh and fabric. Everything it touches becomes fireproof. We do no claim to extinguish conflagrations or to usurp the place occupied by fire depart-ments, but we emphatically hold that no Inciplent fire can possibly live where are used as directed, and thus conflagra tions or disastrous fires are prevented.

Hayward Hand Grenades,

BE CAUTIOUS AND DON'T PURCHASE WORTHLESS IMITATIONS. Send to us for full particulars and one of our new pamphlets containing proofs of the wonderful efficiency of our grenades in extinguishing actual fires. We want live, active, reliable men for agents in the United States. Address
